Again, the British hero entered Spain; and after numerous conflicts, bombarded and took, almost in the presence of numerous armies, the strong and important cities of Ciudad Rodrigo and Badajoz, and entered Madrid in 1812. After much severe fighting, cities bombarded and taken, and the enemy still amounting to nearly 200,000 men, the decisive battle of Vittoria was fought on the 21st of June, 1813. From hence the noble hero pursued the numerous hosts of the enemy; and after dreadful conflicts and destructive sieges, succeeded in driving them from the Spanish territory, and triumphantly entering the borders of France on the 7th of October, 1813. The orderly conduct of his army obtained the confidence and esteem of the inhabitants, who supplied his camp with every necessary. After vanquishing...
