Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The History of the Edifice of the Metropolitan Church of St. Peter, York: Illustrated by Extracts From Authentic Records of the See, C. C., By Plans, Sections, and by Drawings of the Embellishments In the course of the examination of these records, which the arrangement of them on their removal rendered necessary, several fabric rolls of accounts, some of them by the Chamberlains, others by the Keepers or Master of the Fabric, the existence of which had not hitherto been known or suspected, were brought to light; and were found to contain a mass of interesting facts and items highly necessary as evidence in a genuine history of the late portions Of the fabric. The discovery of so much new and important evidence unavoidably led the Author, in justice to the Subscribers, no less than to the character of his Work, to add much to the historical matter he had previously collected; and the subsequent destruction of the Nave greatly enhancing the value of the drawings he had made of the bosses in the vaulting, together with the discovery of several interesting specimens of ancient stained glass, particularly in the clerestory of the Nave, appeared to him to require that he should increase the number Of the Plates. These circumstances will, he trusts, be deemed a sufficient justification Of his having extended the Work so far beyond the limit at first proposed. On presenting the entire Work to the Public, the Author is apprehensive that it may not satisfy the expectations of all who have favoured it with their support. Some may complain that he has not given a sufficient number of plans and elevations, while others may think that he...
