iUniverse, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This book will surely encourage you when the storms of life are raging. The words of the Lord will give you hope just when you think you are down for the last count. --Toinette Wright, president and founder, Mending Bridges Regardless of lifestyle, race, education, or socioeconomic background--storms will come. They will wreak havoc on your personal life, intrude on your professional life, and even threaten your spiritual life. When they come, it's important not to get discouraged. Encouragement can help you find hope in despair, and that's what Val McCray--the wife of a pastor--provides in this book. She's been walking with the Lord for many years, but she's the first to admit that she's endured many storms, made countless mistakes, and suffered heartache and pain along the way. But Jesus advises us in James 1:2-3 to count it all as joy when we face various tests and trials, because eventually they will produce patience in our lives. When you're unsettled in spirit, stop and acknowledge it to the Lord. Even if you cannot express what you're feeling, you'll find that the Holy Spirit will step in and give meaning to each tear that falls from your eyes. If you are in any way unsure about the ground on which you currently stand, you'll find value in this book's practical and powerful messages, based solely on the word of God. They provide a proven bridge over troubled waters.
