

Biblical History and the Generations (Paperback)

By Harold Bates

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. After pondering over the fact if my book is historical or religious, I have decided that the book best benefits philosophy. After retiring from work as a medical biologist, I began a research project, and it has grown and grown into a book. Darwin wrote a very controversial book, and he had difficulty in having it published because it contested theology. But not to worry; today, we may have it published and all may enjoy it. The Islamabad-Peshawar area had a history of six thousand years, and the Euphrates was its fourth river. Seth ventured north, up the twisting river that had once spilled a course along the eastern border of what is now Iran. Cain built his city at 49 degrees north on the Volga River, in the land that became Sythica. After the city was two hundred and seventy years old, Noah came down from the Black Sea, and his ship was named The Pride of Two Worlds. The lineage of Seth entitles early Europe, from the Volga to the Baltic. In the East, writing is found as far...
