When an ordinary wife and mom faces a suddenly upended life, will she learn to embrace the extraordinary chances it offers? Find out in Boy Toy, the new work by K. Wiley Sider that launches the author's Dead Husbands series of contemporary women's novels. Twisting murder and mystery into its romantic storyline, this absorbing tale is certain to captivate anyone who ever wonders if her perfectly normal world could turn in a blink. Kate Richardson may harbor desire for Patrick, the hot pool manager. However, an eyebrow-raising romance with a much younger man has never really been her style. Plus, Kate is more than resigned to her life with sweet, though spirited children and a peevish dentist husband, John. Nonetheless, when John announces his affair with his young hygienist Bethany, Kate ends up heading for divorce and eventually into the deep end with Patrick. As her watchful neighborhood reels in gossip, she once again faces the unfathomable when John turns up dead and Bethany names Kate as his killer. Can Kate rise above unfounded accusations, a damaged professional life, and an increasingly shaky romance with Patrick? Discover just how deadly serious playing with a boy toy can be.
