

Breaking the Curse of Racism from the Root

By Barbara Robinson Smith

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 344 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.5in. x 0.9in. The people of African descent have suffered different degrees of abuse since they were taken from their homeland and enslaved. Since that time they have experienced abolition of slavery, segregation, and today's subtle racism. One cannot help but wonder why of all the people groups of the world they were chosen to endure this suffering. Why is Africa, their motherland, the only place in the world known as the Dark Continent? Are these two issues connected? Are we under a curse? The author finds the answers hidden in the word of God, and discusses ways of biblically eradicating racism, and restore Africa as the continent of light it was created to be. All races will find this book inspiring and freeing as it brings a fresh hope of freedom from these types of problems for all people, especially the people of African descent and the descendants of those who brought them here. Barbara R. Smith is the Founder/Director of Instrument of His Peace Ministry, Mercy Intercessors for America and Hands of Mercy Ministry, an inner-city ministry to the poor and homeless. She is a Minister,...

READ ONLINE
[6.15 MB]

Reviews

It becomes an incredible book that we actually have possibly study. It really is really exciting through studying period of time. I am very easily could get a satisfaction of reading through a written book.

-- Gianni Hoppe

A really awesome pdf with perfect and lucid reasons. It is actually really fascinating through reading period of time. Your lifestyle period will probably be transform as soon as you total looking over this ebook.

-- Alford Kihn