Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.MacLaine Winters finds the details of her husband s false identity tucked away inside old record albums after moving to a new town. With the help of her father, who is a retired covert military operative, along with her ready for adventure sister, her pragmatic, yet fearless brother, her precocious 4-year-old daughter, and a frog named Henry, she discovers his identity is a sham and her idyllic life as his wife is merely a part in his witness protection program. Interwoven into this novel is the thread of rising above conflict as each character strives for credibility, to be valued, and to become a vetted asset.
