Brand New Book  Print on Demand .World War II will go down in history of one of the bloodiest and most costly wars to human kind ever, the 6 yearlong battle between the allied forces and the Nazi s still has relevance today and is something that the majority of people have at least a basic knowledge of. This wonderfully informative and well written eBook will provide you with a frank and insightful overview of what happened during that fateful time. This book covers the events that took place from the signing of the Treaty of Versailles that signalled the end of World War I right through to the end of the Second World War. Discover the journey that took place before Germany invaded Poland and began the war, hear the story of how Hitler and Stalin joined forces and signed the Nazi-Soviet Non-Aggression Pact which effectively divided Eastern Europe and shocked the Allied Forces. Follow the journey taken by the German forces through Europe during early 1940 before descending on England later that year and broaden your knowledge on how close the German forces came to conquering England. Educate yourself on the true horror and devastation that occurred during the famous Battle of Britain where despite being outnumbered the British forces were bravely victorious and thus began the march to victory! Treat yourself to a real slice of history and grab this eBook, but be prepared to be amazed, astounded and ultimately proud of the work done by so many very brave people to keep our freedom. History truly comes alive within these pages and will leave you with a hunger for further knowledge.
